

1. TEXAS NEWS: "Frisco firm creating system to find wandering Alzheimer's patients," by Bob Moos (Dallas Morning News, Jan. 30, 2008).

http://www.dallasnews.com/sharedcontent/dws/bus/stories/DN-EmFinders_30bus.ART.State.Edition1.38aaeda.html

2. CANADA NEWS: "Peace of mind, but it doesn't come cheap: Popular with pre-retirees, new insurance products boast reliable retirement income, even if some experts question their value," by Gavin Adamson (Globe and Mail [Toronto, Ontario], Jan. 30, 2008).

<http://www.globefund.com/servlet/story/GFGAM.20080130.SRRRSPGUARANTEED30/GFStory/>

3. "Healthways plunges as analysts express concern over prospects of Medicare pilot program" (Associated Press via CBS4 TV News [Denver, Colorado], Jan. 31, 2008).

<http://cbs4denver.com/businesswire/22.0.html?type=national&serviceLevel=f&category=f&filename=APFN-Healthways-Mover.xml>