

1. New Spanish-Language Consumer Guide Compares Oral Diabetes Medications

The Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality [AHRQ] released Pastillas para la diabetes tipo 2, a new consumer guide to help Hispanic adults who have type 2 diabetes compare various oral medications for their illness. The guide organizes comparative research results according to diabetes patients' concerns and questions, and assists them in using research results when talking with health care professionals about their diabetes medicines. Select to read the guide at <http://effectivehealthcare.ahrq.gov/healthInfo.cfm?infotype=sg&DocID=97&ProcessID=6&language=spanish>

Note: A print copy is available by sending an e-mail to ahrqpubs@ahrq.hhs.gov.
